

Dear Valued Partner

In over 90 years of innovation, acquisition and continued growth, we remain as experts in electrical safety.

We write to inform you that we will adopt a single brand strategy, giving our entire business shared focus and removing confusion around the market-leading product we consistently offer.

With this in mind, we are delighted to announce that our new brand will be  PENTA. The  PENTA branding will cover all product and service offered.

With PENTA, we strengthen our position as “Manufacturing Experts”.

As  PENTA we will merge all business areas across product and service to give 5 expert brands:

For Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) and Personal Protective Clothing (PPC) used to protect yourself and your environment when working with electricity.

For safety equipment required when following lockout/ tagout procedure and if working with overhead and underground systems in a low, medium, or high voltage electrical environment.

For precision Safety tooling and equipment used in the construction and maintenance of electrical networks.

The  PENTA goal is to support innovative product and tailor-made situations for ANY situation, backed by over 90 years of GLOBAL experience.

Our products will continue to be developed, designed and manufactured in compliance with GLOBAL standards and with you the customer as our main focus. Quality across all our business remains unaffected with certification updated to reflect our new GLOBAL focus.

With  PENTA we strive to better serve both market and customer whilst being mindful of our place as a company intent on reducing its carbon footprint. A company that continually looks to promote green technologies and solutions.

Your life,
Our work.

EVOLUTION

All existing brands will join together to form a new brand,  PENTA ELECTRICAL SAFETY PRODUCTS. The new flagship brands are :

- Our brand new website - www.pentaesp.com - will detail all changes and showcase our exciting new structure.
- All email addresses will appear as firstname.lastname@pentaesp.com and have been revised to match the change in branding giving the business one identity.
- Communication from the company will also show the new brand  PENTA ELECTRICAL SAFETY PRODUCTS.

As a result of the rebranding, certain products and packaging may be delivered with historical branding for a period of time.*

WHAT REMAINS THE SAME?

- Familiar product names, references and specification will remain the same.
- As indicated above, email addressed to an old e-mail address will be redirected to its new derivative.
- Company name, postal address and telephone numbers all remain the same.

 PENTA ELECTRICAL SAFETY PRODUCTS allows continued focus on increasing GLOBAL actions around; Customer Service, Innovation in design and manufacturing and GLOBAL excellence across the entire business paying attention to differing GLOBAL certification.

Our core business is and will always be to protect your HEALTH & SAFETY.

Your life,
Our work.

With our sincerest thanks,
The Operational Marketing Department
